

May Robson Is Guest of Honor at University Club Tea on Sunday

MAY ROBSON, the soul of gentility in drawing or evening gown, was guest of honor at Sunday's informal "at home" at the University club, when an Egyptian tea brought together several hundred members and guests for a chat over their steaming beverages. During the always more or less impromptu program, Miss Robson was introduced by the president, Norman Walker, and gave a sparkling talk.

The spacious club quarters on the top floor of the Martin building were transformed into a "Nile" scene with tropical palms, white, for mural decoration, the plans were hung in numerous prints of sacred temples of the interesting land. Mrs. S. H. Barrett, Mrs. Harvey Reynolds Gamble, Mrs. John Fielding and Mrs. Jay C. Long presided over the tea urns, the tables being pretty in their hands some lace and floral decorations. Mr. Walker, Jay C. Long, J. P. Finney, H. Gamble, Mrs. Fielding, Mrs. S. H. Barrett, Mrs. Harvey Reynolds Gamble, Mrs. John Fielding and Mrs. Jay C. Long presided over the tea urns, the tables being pretty in their hands some lace and floral decorations. Mr. Walker, Jay C. Long, J. P. Finney, H. Gamble, Mrs. Fielding, Mrs. S. H. Importance of Feeding the Troops Is Told at Herald Cooking School

THE menu for this afternoon at the Herald's big cooking school included:

Lemon pudding;
Boiled fish, Hungarian style;
Cheese biscuits;
Victory bread;
Mock mince pie;
Conservation pie crust.

As was the case Saturday afternoon, a large crowd was in attendance, and there is no doubt about the fact that a tremendous interest is being taken in the work of Mrs. Edna J. Evans, and that the women of El Paso are awake to the vital need for conservation.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Evans began with a poignant, appealing and telling talk on the necessity and meaning of conservation.

"An army cannot fight on an empty stomach," said Mrs. Evans. "And I believe we had rather our boys would have 'cold feet' than empty stomachs."

Red Cross in Army.

"I am especially interested in conservation," continued Mrs. Evans, "because my own boy is wearing the uniform of Uncle Sam, and while he is still in the States, I must think of the time when he will be there."

"Red Cross work is a fine and necessary thing, but I find that women will neglect their home children in competition with others for new memberships to the Red Cross. And these men and women will tell me they have not sufficient time for the study or practice of conservation. One woman I have in mind says with whom I dined, was serving white wheat bread and pie on a wheatless day. I asked her why she was doing so, and she said she was not even aware that it was wheatless day. Knitting is a fine thing, and we must support the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the bond issues, and all of these things, but," added Mrs. Evans with calm but forceful emphasis, "if we don't stand behind the boys with food, we won't win the war."

"I want to show you how to cook in such a manner as to cut down the cost, and still have a meal that is good to eat—an edible meal. One of the worst forms of waste is to put food on the table that is not edible."

Mrs. Evans began her demonstration.

Lieut. D. R. Bullard, Capt. and Mrs. H. A. Tomassene, J. L. Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Basil Prescott.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hughes had a small informal party, the guests being Mrs. George Hunter of Dallas and Judge and Mrs. F. E. Hunter.

The officers of the 10th Infantry were held up on Tuesday night for their party, before mentioned to these officers. A buffet supper and dance is to be participated in by a large number of guests.

The soldiers at Camp Biene, Fort Bliss, are to be given a program by the U. S. Girls, Tuesday evening, as follows:

Song, by the U. S. club.
Solo, Eileen Kluge.
Solo dance, Elizabeth Swann.
Song, Tom Donahue.
Reading, Frederick Stevenson.
Solo and dance, Lois Shaw.
Dance, Blanche Cornwall.
Song, Sammy Joseph.
Song, Frederick Stevenson.
Song, by the U. S. club. Madame May Loesser, accompanist.

The girls composed their personal Misses LaRue and Virginia Knight, Margaret Hines, Margaret Powers, Nellie Mae Beauchamp, Irene Smith, Martha Lowman, Mabel Shaw, Isabel Kitchens.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Scott Johnson were at home to the soldiers of the First Christian church, Sunday, from 2 to 5 o'clock, at their hospitable home, 310 North Campbell street, the men in khaki finding every nook, from kitchen to drawing room, placed at their disposal. Some of the girls of the church, by their unique talents, added to the pleasure of the event with music—among them Miss Lola Bass Smith, Miss Elizabeth Woodson, Miss Lucille Rice, Miss Altha Fruit, Miss Gretta Fritz, Miss Edna Bingham and Miss Ruth Davis Hot chocolate, marshmallows, and oatmeal cookies carried out the Hooverized menu served. This is but one of many prospective parties in which the women of the church hope to give Uncle Sam's boys a bit of home atmosphere.

The official board of the First Christian church are giving a farewell reception to Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Rice and family, this evening. Members of the congregation both of the First Christian and Austin Park, and friends outside, are bidden. The Rice leave for their new home in Chicago, Wednesday.

Kentucky Lady Says Two Bottles of Cardui Surprised Her by Acting so Quickly.

Relief, Ky.—Mrs. Sarah M. Hill, of this place, writes: "I can't praise Cardui too much, for it is a wonderful medicine for women."

Eight years ago, I began to feel not quite so well as usual. . . . I was not able to do anything. It seemed like I was dwindling away, and kept getting more puny every day. I was weak and pale and could not stand on my feet long. . . . I had no doctor but I knew by my feelings that I had womanly weakness.

After I decided to try Cardui, I bought one bottle. It seemed as if the very first few doses began to help me. I was surprised that anything could begin to act so quickly. But it helped me right away. I knew it did because I began immediately to get strong.

After I finished that first bottle, I bought another. When I had finished that second bottle, I was all right. I did not need a third bottle. I kept right on getting stronger until I was as strong as ever, and I have kept so. . . . Now I am as well and as strong and as able to do my work as I ever was in my life."

Try Cardui today. —Adv.

Weddings.

Miss Mamie Kerr, daughter of Mrs. Jess Kerr of this city, and John Shaw Willison, stationed at Fort Bliss with the army, were quietly married Saturday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Overstreet. Rev. Overstreet reading the nuptial service in the presence of the bride's mother and sister, Miss Effie Kerr, and Miss Louetta Lax and Grayson Christman of the army.

Saturday night, Central Baptist church, Rev. O. J. Wade officiated at the marriage of Miss Elvada Make and George E. Hayes, a wedding being quickly celebrated in the presence of a few friends. The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. C. E. Make, of 12 North St. Yvonne, and a sister of C. E. Make, of this city, wore a tulle and chile hat to match. The happy couple are to be housed at 705 North Florence, where lives the groom's mother, Mrs. George Broberg.

Miss Margaret Mahoney of Graceville, Minn., became the bride of Raymond Rindcoff, formerly of Boston and at present a Lieutenant in the army, now stationed at Fort Bliss, at a service read by Rev. F. G. G. Frund in cathedral rectory, Saturday evening. M. E. Mahoney gave her daughter in marriage, Mrs. M. McClements being the only other attendant. Lieut. and Mrs. Rindcoff will be at home in El Paso after March 15.

El Pasoans Awaken.

James Tobin left Saturday evening for Victor, Colo., on the Sunshine special.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Stark, who have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Yerkes, of New York city and W. B. Stark, of Davenport, Iowa, for house guests, the past few days, left as a merry party for California this morning. Dr. and Mrs. Stark are to stay with the easterners for a week—the most delightful sort of a hurried trip to the coast resorts of the land of sunshine.

When Planning Your Lingerie Frock.

With a full Italian dinner. Music punctuated the afternoon, and many patriotic airs were rendered by Holguin's orchestra. The audience stood at the beginning of Mrs. Evans' lecture to the strains of the "Star Spangled Banner." Two late and popular pieces that were requested were "Leave It To Jane," and a selection from "Her Regiment."

Among the interesting things in connection with the school is a unique little floor, either given away by Krakauer, Zerk and Meyer, Inc., the Stenemann Manufacturing company is giving away samples of floor polish. A thrilling exhibit are those of the El Paso Sash and Door company, and the El Paso Refining company. The Sash and Door company has a display entirely of art glass, and two paintings over 50 years old, made by the father of the head of the glass department, Mr. Baker. The display of Arctic shortening by the refining company attracts much attention. The Finley Coffee company has a most attractive display also, being arranged in such a way as to afford an entrance into the booth. Seers-Lazby company has done itself and the school credit with its fine display of fanges.

Knave By Talking Machines.

The Tri-State Talking Machine company has an artistic display of musical instruments, and its excellent talking machines with their music add much to the entertainment. Maxwell's Home Bakery with its excellent display of bakery products, has demonstrated the fact of conservation in buying bread and baked goods from the bakery. The Purity Baking company has demonstrated this same thing, and a pleasing display.

One of the most educational and interesting displays is the one of the Acme Laundry, which is in charge of Mrs. J. M. C. A. Mills. Mrs. Mills is serving hot biscuits with coffee from the display of the Finley Coffee company. It is not necessary to say that this is a most delicious treat.

INSTEAD of buying several yards of expensive embroidery, use a panel back and front, combined with plain batiste. A border of embroidery trims the gathered skirt. This stunning model is developed in Philippine hand embroidery and real life lace, but it is a charming idea for good machine embroidery of robe depth, combined with the wonderfully lovely lace within reach of the modest pocket book. A pink sash is the effective finish at the waistline.
